before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Designs and Patterns from North African Carpets and Textiles (Dover Pictorial Archives):

LOVE Dover books for how inexpensive and valuable they are: they provide us with so much more visual imagery than we'd ever be able to get on our own. This book has about a million...oh I exaggerate...only 340 patterns as shown on carpets, saddle blankets, wall hangings, windows, and every other type of decorative or functional item. Of course, the fault is that all the images except for the front cover and inside the front and back covers are bw. For my purposes, that's fine: I like to stitch oriental carpets and this includes some beauties that just need colors. I also like blackwork and there are myriad patterns that could be put to good use there. Almost every pattern is on a grid so it can be translated onto counted fabric. Quite a treasure.

121 plates of the best Tunisian textile designs. Abundance of patterns for anyone working in graphics and handicrafts: special motifs (lions, soldiers, fish, birds, camels); geometrics; simple and elaborate borders and linear patterns and much more. Most patterns appear on grids for easy copying. 340 illustrations.
