Each lamp is photographed and referenced. Includes some very rare lamps you may not find anywhere else. Well done.

Welcome to the wonderful world of miniature Victorian era glass lamps! This beautiful reference book is sure to capture your fancy with photographs and descriptions of nearly 600 late 19th century miniature oil lamps that have not appeared in publications before. Many are variations of lamps that have not been documented until now. Styles include finger lamps, student lamps, miniature banquet lamps, miners lamps, skaters lamps, and much more. To add to the perspective of understanding miniature oil lamps, estimated current values have also been provided. If you are an experienced miniature lamp collector, antique dealer, or just beginning to notice these glass lamps, this book will provide you a wealth of important information.

About the Author Marjorie Hulsebus has been collecting miniature oil lamps for 26 years and draws on her own collection of over 900 hundred lamps as well as the collections of others for this new book. She has previously written Miniature Victorian Lamps and Price Guide to Miniature Lamps for Schiffer Publishing. She resides in California with her family.
