Morton Potteries: 99 years Vol. 2By Susan L. Eberlethis is an awesome book. the authors are collectors and 'home towners'. i am an avid collector of one of the pieces actually not shown in this book, altho other authors have verified that the cockatiel that i am in love with is definitely a Morton Potteries production. the items i found in the book are ones i have seen and admired, but not known they were produced in morton, il. now i know!!!!!! this is a wonderful reference piece and anyone who opens it will be amazed at the craftsmanship and ingenuity with which some of these pieces were developed. a must read for anyone and everyone who deals in porcelain.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A welcome addition presented in the same tradition as the long-unavailable first volume, Morton Potteries: 99 Years, Vol. II is an in-depth study on all the wares and potteries that produced such within the Morton, IL region. Detailed research on such manufacturers as Rapp Bros., Morton Pottery Works, Cliftwood Art Potteries, Midwest Potteries, Morton Pottery Co., and all affiliated businesses has been included, with original catalog pages and full-color photographs of various pieces with values noted. 1996 VALUES -- Book Description
