By S. Ganetis
Overall, this was a great book for finding out the value of my son's card collection since he asked me to liquidate it for him. Quite a few of the cards were not listed, whether they were special insert cards, or whatever, so that was a little annoying.

Over 50,000 price listings for basketball cards from 1948 to 2007, identified by year, manufacturer, size, format, team and player. Includes more than 25 basketball card brands, hundreds of photos, and valuable information on how to assemble a collection.
